Notes & acknowledgements:

A beautiful morning saw the Beacon being used by a vast array of people, and so the riders were treated to views of dozens of paragliders hanging about in the still sky. The rider who finished second (Bordeau) was delayed by horse walkers and third placed rider (Combén) was delayed by a man taking a dog for a walk from the comfort of his own car – unfortunately the dog stopped on the course to do its business just as Andy started his race. Despite these delays, neither rider would have challenged the overall leader (Pete Tadros) who scorched up the climb on 38*18 fixed with a truly phenomenal ride to break the previous 'believed' course record of 3:52.2.

Shortly before the event, local course aficionado Mick Kilby mentioned he thought this was set on a shorter course than the current version, then Pete came along and smashed it, putting the new record in no doubt - 3:41.84.

The team award went the way of a surprised Lewes Wanders team who on paper looked to be beaten by both In Gear Quickvit and Brighton Mitre.

A healthy field of 6 pre-entered ladies would provide another competitive competition. Deborah Percival set a time to equal the efforts of Tadros to finish well clear of Naomi Dandridge who just bettered team mate Natasha Fuller by 4tenths of a second.

The vets award went the way of the previously mentioned winners with Tadros, Burdeau and Percival taking the honours.

Huge thanks must go to Mick Kilby and Richard Meed (Timekeepers), Rob Pelham & Tom Glandfield (Results Board) Debbie Evers (refreshments) and Amanda Winton for providing the cakes.
