Notes & acknowledgements:

The consensus was that conditions were tough thanks to a tricky nagging wind that seemed to be against riders out and back, coupled with the low temperatures. Despite this the rain held off until everyone was back in the hall. Most people felt they could have gone quicker (but, hey what's new) but overall times were good and within the ball park of riders' expectations. There were one or two standout times – the winner, Will Mangar in particular. There were an encouraging number of juniors, and it was great to see a racing trike at full tilt down the A22.

Putting on an Open event is no small task as I now realise, and am terrifically grateful to the following people who so good naturedly gave up their valuable time: Ashley and Laurie Leaney, marshals Tony Gale and Bob Comben, timekeepers Jane and Graham Lade, Mick Kilby who helped me set the field, Ann Human gets a special mention for coordinating results and answering all my queries. Lucy and my mum made all the refreshments, except the chocolate brownies cooked up by Thomas. See you all next Year!
